

The Gunns 'Pulp Mill Partner Polka' with Orchestration by ASIC Conducted by Robert McClelland.

A list of key statements Gunns delivered to the ASX over a four year period concerning a partner/joint venture partner/finance for their proposed Bell Bay pulp mill. From the 'More Dates Than Casanova' document available here.

will now be completed in the near term	4 October 2007
proceed quickly with commencement	22 October 2007
completion of outstanding commercial negotiations	28 February 2008
Final terms are currently being negotiated	March 2008
proceeding to finalise the arrangement of finance	29 May 2008
in active discussions with a number of banks	3 July 2008
Discussions continuing	29 August 2008
continuing to progress discussions	30 October 2008
discussions have been positive and are continuing	19 November 2008
continuing to negotiate	1 December 2008
move forward with the overall financing structure	29 January 2009
progressing the financing structure	9 February 2009
On target to select a Joint Venture partner	26 February 2009
expecting to reach agreement	26 February 2009
finalised, which is expected to be in June 2009	21 April 2009
now made a decision to proceed with one Company	29 June 2009 moving forward positively with the preferred partner	29 June 2009
in dialogue with a number of parties	11 November 2009
continuing positively	6 January 2010
Negotiations with Sodra ...are continuing	22 February 2010
now awaiting finalisation	February 2010
has progressed positively	23 April 2010
progressed to detailed due diligence	11 June 2010
has progressed satisfactorily	29 September 2010
finalising an investment structure	30 September 2010
due diligence process has taken much longer	25 November 2010
under an advanced stage of development	25 November 2010
expected to complete its financing strategy	25 November 2010 proceeding through the due diligence stage	15 February 2011
investment process has been delayed	February 2011
financial strategy that will enable us to proceed alone	1 June 2011 engaged in final negotiation	25 August 2011
investment program is progressing	2 September 2011
well advanced but not yet complete	24 October 2011